Any Other Items Requiring Budget Consideration

(a) Section 137 Allocation

Discussion took place regard possible Section 137 allocation for the financial year 2011/12.

RESOLVED: That no specific allocation will be made for Section 137 for the financial year April 2012 to March 2013 but that if the allocation for the current financial year was not used it could be carried forward.

(b) Reserve/Contingency Fund

The Clerk reported that the reserve fund was in a healthy condition, Councillors were, so far during this financial year, spending in line with their budgets and the reserve fund was likely to be in line with the budget by 31 March 2012. However, due to the current financial climate it was considered prudent to keep a further sum for non specific items that might occur and need payment during the year.

RESOLVED: That the sum of £1668.00 be allocated for the financial year April 2012 to March 2013.

(c) Exempt Item

Precept Resolution

RESOLVED: To recommend that a Precept of £62,281 be requested from NFDC for the financial year 2011/2012.

Any Other Business

(a) Internet Banking

The Clerk explained that as people were being encouraged not to use cheques, payments were now being made direct into the Parish Council current bank account. This sometimes made it difficult to track items as bank statements were only received on a monthly basis. Lloyds Bank have indicated that should the Parish wish to switch to Internet Banking a letter with three signatures on it will be required.

RESOLVED:

- i. That the Clerk bring a suitable letter to the next Parish Council meeting for signature.
- ii. That no outgoing transactions be permitted using this banking system.

(b) Reserve/Contingency Sum

The Clerk suggested that it might be appropriate to move some of the Parish Council's reserve/contingency sum into a higher interest account.

RESOLVED: That the Clerk be authorised to move some of the Parish Council's Reserve sum into a higher interest account and to report back to the Parish Council.

In the absence of any other business the Chairman thanked those present for attending and closed the meeting.
