

Sgt Brian Goodhall (left), heads up the Safer Neighbourhoods

team for New Forest North.

Crime Summary:

There were 89 reported incidents in June

Assault – 4

Criminal Damage – 5

Theft from Motor Vehicle – 1

Theft of Vehicle – 1

Theft – 5

Road Traffic Incidents – 4

Dwelling Burglary – 0

Non Dwelling Burglary – 9

Rowdy Behaviour

Two lads were seen digging up the path at Boltons Bench Lyndhurst. It appears they were trying to make a ramp for their BMC cycles. This isn't the first time this has happened.

A drunken male was arrested for being abusive towards bar staff at the Stag and the Mailmans P/H in Lyndhurst.

Burglary

I am pleased to say there were no burglaries this month.

Burglary None Dwelling

Over night persons stole display items from an exhibition at the Lyndhurst Park Hotel. At the Crown Hotel a male was seen in the reception area overnight. He made off with the cash box which was found empty in the Church opposite.

The betting shop in

Lyndhurst had an attempt break. They got in by forcing the rear window and then tried to open the safe. The fruit machine was also tampered with. It appears the same people had gained Entry to an empty shop next door and tried to force their way through the wall. Also a communal area of a block of flats near by was entered nothing taken.

Damage

In Foxlease Terrace Lyndhurst a cars window was smashed but the car wasn't entered.

In woodlands persons damaged the fencing around the community hall.

In Ashurst a garage had a car damaged by marking most panels with a sharp instrument. Later they discovered an attempt was made to steal its exhaust. This is an increasing offence as the price of metals increases.

Assaults

A male in Lyndhurst called the Police and Ambulance to say he had been assaulted. When they arrived he asked all to leave and stated he had fallen over.

Theft From Vehicle

An insecure car in Princes Crescent Lyndhurst was entered and a PDA and Mobile phone were stolen

Theft of a vehicle

The only vehicle stolen was a Ford Transit van in Ashurst that was awaiting an MOT. It had large NHS logos down the sides.

Theft.

A lawn mower was stolen from a shed in Hazel Grove Ashurst.

There have been a lot of reported deception offences reported due to the Bridal shop in Lyndhurst closing. The shop was also subject to a break in by those responsible entering an empty flat next door and then smashing their way down through the ceiling into the shop.